

Occupational Health and Safety Statement

WTW is committed to providing a safe and healthy work environment for our colleagues, clients and visitors. Our approach includes managing and maintaining our facilities and workplaces to provide for adequate and appropriate welfare-at-work arrangements. This includes providing information and tools to facilitate the understanding, documentation and management of local Occupational Health and Safety (OHS) risks and hazards.

Subject matter experts plan and prepare for OHS requirements, which align with industry practice and suitability for the business's risk profile. Our global OHS program has been developed to follow recognized national and international safety management systems and to be compliant with OHS laws in all countries in which our Company operates.

Program objectives, planning, and management

The objective of the global OHS program is to understand, evaluate and manage health and safety risks via formal risk assessments to minimize injury or health risks. Additionally, we provide adequate information, instruction and training such that OHS roles are appropriately assigned and responsibilities are understood. Our approach aims at ensuring that consistent guidelines, control measures and emergency procedures are in place and that they are effective, properly used, monitored and maintained in all our offices globally.

OHS plans are reviewed and updated regularly under an ethos of continuous improvement, with the OHS program assessed and adjusted in accordance with our OHS commitments on both global and local levels.

These reviews are undertaken by a partnership of subject matter experts and key stakeholders. Our dedicated OHS team provides oversight and guidance to all our local OHS office and practice teams to help ensure all plans continue to meet regulatory requirements and business needs.

Forward-Looking Statements

We have included in this document ‘forward-looking statements’ within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, which are intended to be covered by the safe harbors created by those laws. These forward-looking statements include information about possible or assumed future results of our operations. All statements, other than statements of historical facts, that address activities, events or developments that we expect or anticipate may occur in the future, including such things as our outlook, metrics and targets, the impact of the global pandemic on our business, future capital expenditures, ongoing working capital efforts, future share repurchases, financial results (including our revenue, costs or margins), the impact of changes to tax laws on our financial results, existing and evolving business strategies and acquisitions and dispositions, including the sale of Willis Re to Arthur J. Gallagher & Co. (‘Gallagher’), demand for our services and competitive strengths, goals, the benefits of new initiatives, growth of our business and operations, our ability to successfully manage ongoing leadership, organizational and technology changes, including investments in improving systems and processes, our ability to implement and realize anticipated benefits of any cost-savings initiatives including the multi-year operational Transformation program, and plans and references to future successes, including our future financial and operating results, plans, objectives, expectations and intentions are forward-looking statements. Also, when we use words such as ‘may,’ ‘will,’ ‘would,’ ‘anticipate,’ ‘believe,’ ‘estimate,’ ‘expect,’ ‘intend,’ ‘plan,’ ‘continues,’ ‘seek,’ ‘target,’ ‘focus,’ ‘probably,’ or similar expressions, we are making forward-looking statements. Such statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of the Company’s management and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements. All forward-looking disclosure is speculative by its nature.

A number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results reflected in these forward-looking statements are identified under Risk Factors in Item 1A of our Annual Report on Form 10-K and in our subsequent filings. Copies are available online at www.sec.gov or www.wtwco.com. The risk factors described in our filings are not the only risks and uncertainties that we face. Additional risks and uncertainties that are presently unknown to us could also impair our business operations, financial condition or results.

Although we believe that the assumptions underlying our forward-looking statements are reasonable, any of these assumptions, and therefore also the forward-looking statements based on these assumptions, could themselves prove to be inaccurate. Given the significant uncertainties inherent in the forward-looking statements, our inclusion of this information is not a representation or guarantee by us that our objectives and plans will be achieved.

Our forward-looking statements speak only as of the date made and we will not update these forward-looking statements unless the securities laws require us to do so. In light of these risks, uncertainties and assumptions, the forward-looking events discussed in this document may not occur, and we caution you against unduly relying on these forward-looking statements.

Policy Statements

Each of the following statements is a statement of general policy. It is possible that specific circumstances in our global operations may differ from those described in our policy statements.

Willis Towers Watson public limited company and its subsidiaries (“WTW”) is a leading global advisory, broking and solutions company that provides data-driven, insight-led solutions in the areas of people, risk and capital. Leveraging the global view and local expertise of our colleagues serving more than 140 countries and markets, we help organizations sharpen strategies, enhance resilience, motivate workforces and maximize performance. Our purpose is to transform tomorrows - this extends to our own sustainability position and impact. Our clients, colleagues and other stakeholders expect us to conduct business with integrity, in an environmentally and socially responsible manner and with the highest ethical standards. Providing disclosures, like this report, is just one way we plan to help create additional clarity for our stakeholders on our sustainability position and impact.
