

SCR supporting the commodities markets

Our vision is to provide unparalleled support for the safety, security and wellbeing of our clients and their people.

We provide a 360° service through the design and placement of insurance programmes which dovetail pre-incident consultancy, broking expertise and crisis management support.

We provide 40+ risk mitigation services through Alert:24 underpinned by over 20 insurance products across Accident & Health and Special Crime.

Who Special Contingency Risks are

Special Contingency Risks (SCR) is a leading specialist insurance broker in the field of Special Crime, Accident & Health, and crisis management.

We combine our insurance expertise with an in-house security risk and crisis management practice under the name of Alert:24; providing intelligence, training, consultancy services and a 24-hour operations centre to assist our clients in the event of crises. We have extensive experience in handling incidents and claims impacting our clients in highly sensitive and complex situations.

*It is a regulatory requirement for us to consider our local licensing requirements.

Special Crime solutions

SCR offer a global Special Crime proposition, taking a specialised approach to both land-based and maritime risks. The offering is much more than just insurance, it also includes access to SCR's in-house security risk and crisis management services, Alert:24.

Special Crime policies cover far more than kidnap incidents alone, as we recognised the perils that our clients face. Due to this extensive breadth of security and people risk perils our policies offer comprehensive support:
