Accident and Claims Procedure

Help Us to help You!

At the time of an accident don't admit Liability. Many people feel apologetic about accidents for which they are not responsible. Let Us deal with the potential Liability issue.

Tell Us about the accident as soon as possible by calling Our Claims number as found on Page 2 of this Policy Booklet.

We do not require an accident report form to be completed in every case. However, We recommend that You draw a sketch which clearly shows the position of Your Vehicle before and immediately after the incident while the details are still fresh in Your mind, or, if You are able, take photos. You are required to provide Us with all relevant information and assistance.

Our approved repairers may be able to provide You with assistance in relation to the damage to Your Car. Unless We give Our written consent, no one will make any admission, offer or promise of payment under this Policy.

Please forward any communication received in relation to the accident (including notice of any prosecution or inquest) to Us without delay.

We have full discretion in conducting any defence or in the settlement of any claim and in prosecuting in Your name any claim for Indemnity or damages.

What the Law requires in the case of an accident

For Your guidance the following has been extracted from the 'Rules of the Road'.

- a) Any driver involved must stop his/her vehicle and keep it at the scene of the accident for a reasonable time. However, to avoid obstruction and danger to other road users, the positions of the vehicles should be marked and the vehicles moved off the actual carriageway as quickly as possible.
- b) Any driver must, if requested, give
 - Name and address.
 - The name and address of the vehicle owner if different.
 - The vehicle registration number.
 - Evidence of the insurance to a Garda, or if no Garda is present to anyone present who was involved in or affected by the accident - in any other case the information must be given, if requested to an independent witness.
- c) If any person is injured as result of the accident, the accident must be reported to the nearest Garda station if no Garda is present at the scene of the accident.
- d) Where damage to property only is involved, it is not necessary to report the accident to a Garda Station provided the driver gives necessary particulars as b) above to the owner of the property.

If You are involved in an accident with a visiting motorist, report the accident to the Motor Insurance Bureau of Ireland, 5 Harbourmaster Place, IFSC, Dublin 1. Telephone 01 676 9944.

You are under a duty to answer all the questions that have been asked, honestly and with reasonable care and attention. These questions are material in determining if We can accept this risk, what terms are applied and what premium is charged.

If You do not answer these questions honestly and with reasonable care and attention, We may use the remedies available to Us under the Consumer Insurance Contracts Act 2019 (and any subsequent amending legislation) including the remedy to cancel the contract, reject a claim or to limit the amount We pay in the event of a claim. In addition, when buying this Policy, You warrant and represent to Us that You have the authority to disclose information to Us on behalf of any Person(s) Whose Liability is Covered.

You should check the information carefully in Your Statement of Fact. If any of the information is incorrect, please contact Your broker. You are also obliged to notify Your broker immediately if any of the details provided by You to Us on Your Statement of Fact change.

Where a claim made by You contains information that is false or misleading in any material respect, We shall be entitled to refuse to pay the claim and shall be entitled to terminate the insurance contract. Where We become aware that You have made a fraudulent claim, We shall cancel the policy from the date of the submission of the fraudulent claim and refuse cover for any claim made after the date of the fraudulent act. We may retain the premium paid.

Should any of these actions be taken against You, then You will be obliged to disclose this on any future request for cover or quotation, which may cause You difficulty in trying to purchase insurance elsewhere. It is recommended that You keep a record (including copies of letters) of all information supplied for the purpose of this insurance.

You or anyone acting on Your behalf must not act in any fraudulent way. We may provide details of any such fraud to the appropriate authorities, and this may result in prosecution.
