Private Clients

Our team

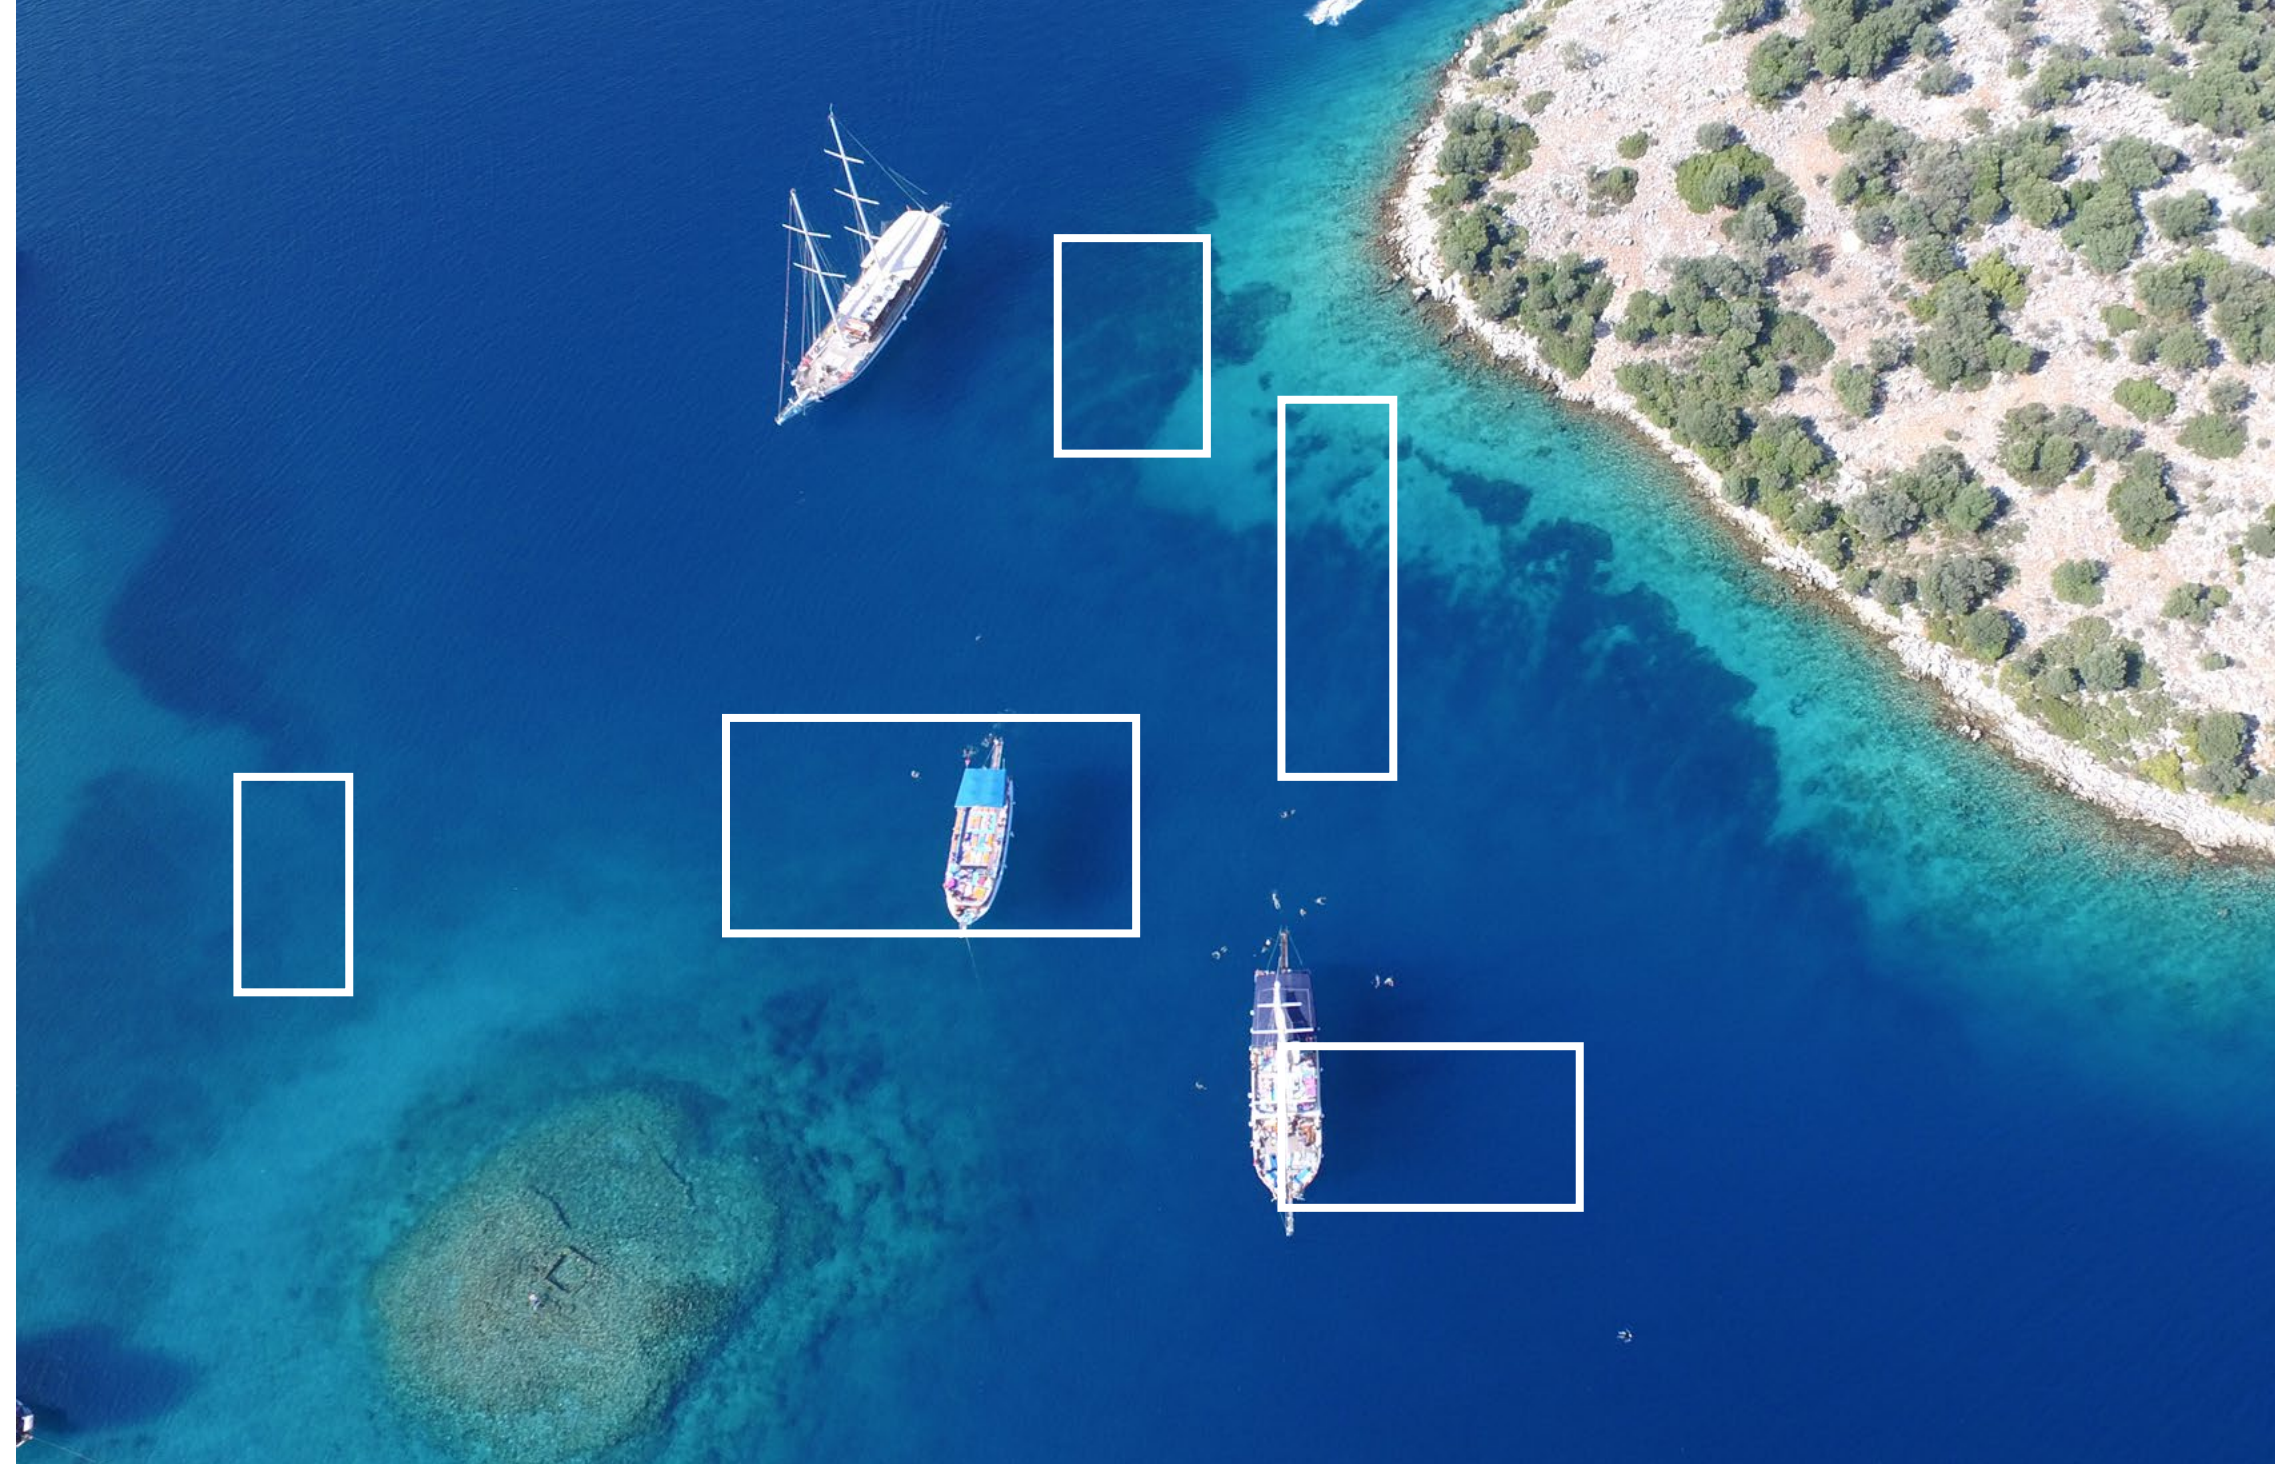

High values may mean greater risks for owners. Few things are as valuable as fine art, superyachts, jewellery, high-end homes, high performance cars or bloodstock, and there are limited markets for insuring such risks. With the need for high limits and operating flexibility, the importance of expertise in handling this type of exposure is clear.

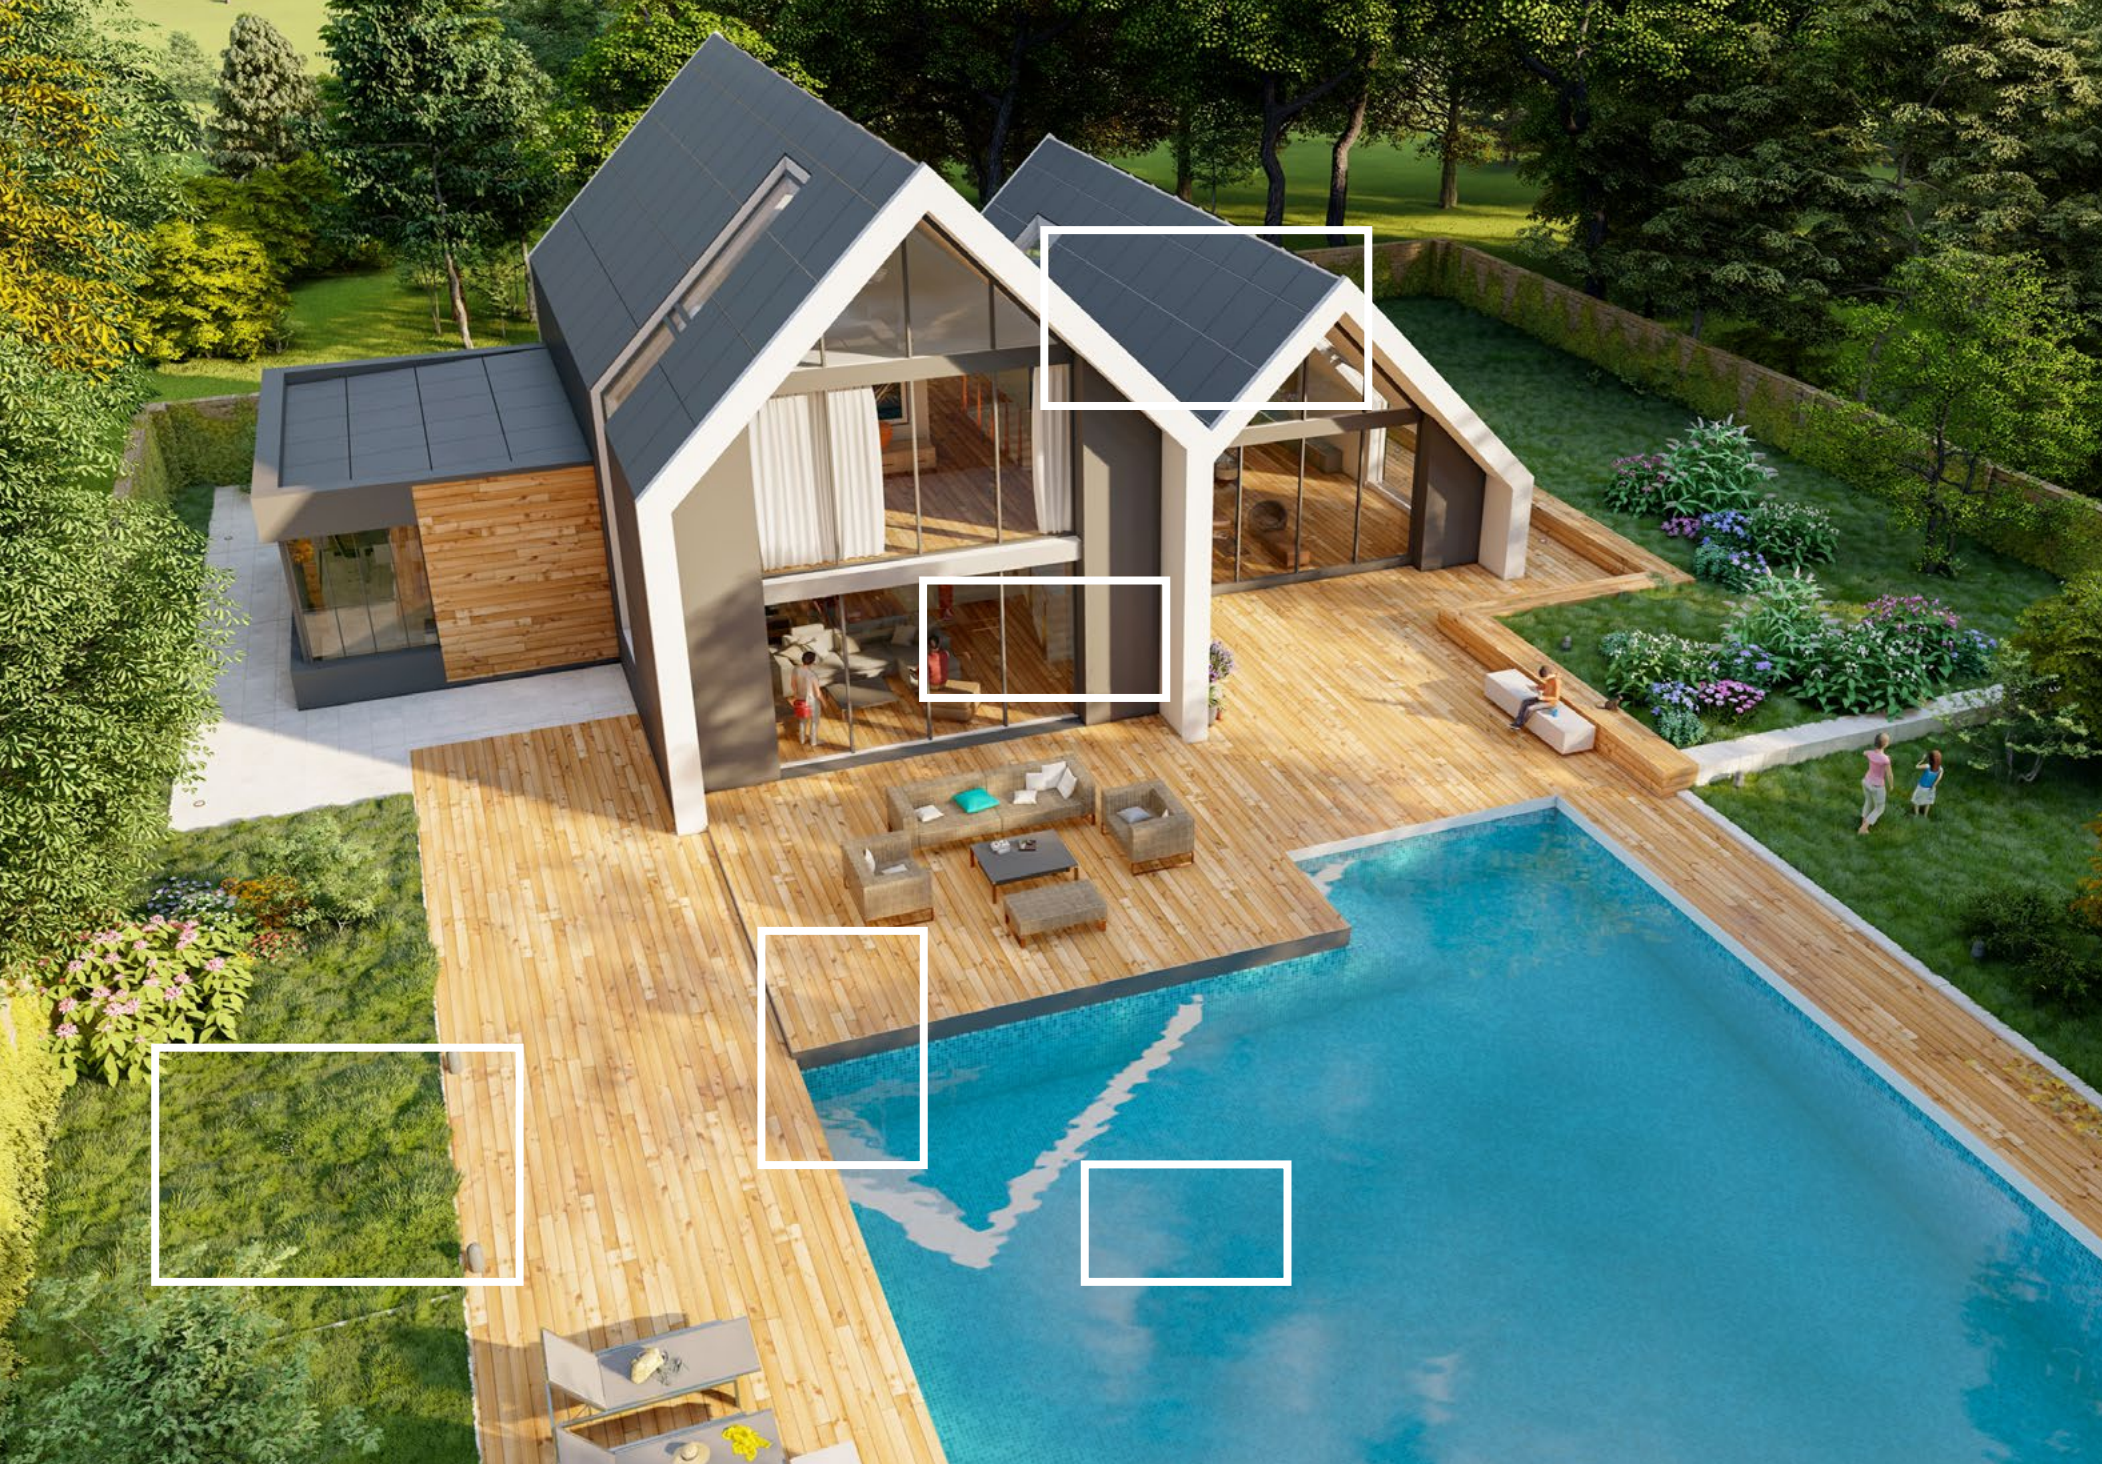

Willis Towers Watson are able to offer luxury asset protection through a dedicated group of insurance specialists in the UK.

The team will assist you in arranging and servicing innovative programmes providing bespoke coverage for your most prized assets. Our highly experienced team will work with you and insurers to provide a suitable solution to protect your high-value assets. These specialisms are brought together by one local contact that will coordinate coverage across the teams, allowing smooth policy management.

We appreciate that discretion is a key concern of our private clients, but rest assured that client confidentiality is central to all our work.

We look forward to an opportunity to demonstrate our expertise.

Private Clients practice

Your luxury assets and possessions are precious to you and require a higher level of protection than is offered by a standard insurance policy. Willis Towers Watson's Private Clients practice can provide this.

The team's extensive sector expertise has been honed over many years, allowing us to compare advice and manage insurance coverage tailored to each client.

As part of our high-touch personal approach to service, we provide you with a dedicated Account Manager whose role is to undertake a detailed assessment of your insurance requirements and explain the recommended cover in plain English. We will provide product advice to put in place an insurance programme that will protect against the various exposures across your wide range of possessions. This advisory service will alleviate the administrative burden of comparing insurance solutions and guide you in selecting the option most applicable to your needs.

Private fine art and jewellery collections

Expertise and an inherent understanding of the subject matter are required to navigate the specific insurance products needed to protect your fine art collections. Our policies recognise art as a unique commodity with values that are subjective as is its diminution of value following damage. Bespoke coverage is provided to indemnify against title, attribution and valuation risks and is designed to cover the wide ranging fine art exposures faced by individuals.

Our expertise in managing private collections extends to jewellery. We understand that your jewellery collections can be extensive and are extremely precious to you, requiring bespoke and robust protection in the case of physical loss or damage.
